

Hiring GSRP Team Teaching Teacher

Seasons of Learning is looking for a committed teacher to work within our team-teaching approach in our Great Start to Readiness classroom. You will be responsible in working with a co-teacher in implementing lesson plans that correlates with the Creative Curriculum, completing home visits, parent/teacher conferences and be willing to attend some evening school events. The ideal candidate will be passionate for the job with the ability to reach out to 4 year old preschool children and creating a trusting relationships with families and co-workers. You will work along with a co-teacher in organizing and implementing learning activities that are fun, and meaningful to the children. The goal is to help cultivate the children's interest in a meaningful way and be dedicated in the process of children's learning and development within the classroom setting.

Responsibilities:

- Working along-side with the co-teacher in implementing weekly lesson plans
- Complete home visits, parent-teacher conferences, and child assessments on a timely basis
- Be able to implement the Creative Curriculum throughout the school day (Will Train)
- Create strategies and learning activities when tapping into the children's interests
- Create a positive relationship with children, their families and with co-workers
- Be able to attend some night activities such as parent nights and family fun nights

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education/Studies
- Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education with a ZS Endorsement in Early Childhood Ed
- Experience in teaching in a preschool classroom
- Must pass a background check and TB test
- Have a current driver's license
- Responsible Transportation
- Other Duties given by the director

Please contact Denise Hall in the Seasons of Learning Office at 586-248-4949 if interested.